

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

DPIoY images have been sent to our judge Martin Faiers ahead of the Zoom competition this coming Monday. This "Don't Print It" competition is a digital image substitute for the usual Print competition this year (so as to use Zoom judging). So, being a little light on news this week here's a mention for some more Prints of the Year which used to hang on the "wall of fame" before the Hut refurbishments. The PoY records go back to 1965 (click link). The images are a nostalgic record of the history of the Club. Previously we showcased a sample of the most represented current member Steve Yates. Here is a selection of some early winners for which we have prints from other current members.

REMINDER - Mike has organised an evening studio workshop with fashion model Lisa for Wed 11 May. There is a charge of £5 payable on the night. If you are interested please let Mike know in advance by email (click link).

Our CLUB PDI Set Subject Competition (8 June) judge has set the subject "Fantasy". His explanation - Fantasy: image contains something unreal/made-up or fictitious (the idea being that you generally have to add something in the scene directly such as a person dressed as a princess, and/or extra items are added in post-processing, like strange clouds). The image needs to be recognisable and look/feel right ie you can't see the joins etc. It should not be just 'abstract'. Choose a title that helps tell your story. It doesn't have to be complicated - think about your images now - up to four images needed by 1 June (details nearer the time). Note: Images (or image elements) CAN HAVE BEEN USED PREVIOUSLY in ANY Club competitions at ANY time.
