

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

Last Monday we met on Zoom to take another look at the "Fantasy" images from the PDI Set Subject Competition. And this week the Club has been voting online for the monthly competition with the subject "Reading/Writing".

The three top images will be announced in the Zoom meeting on Monday and will join the top images from the other 11 months in a final vote of all 36 images during the coming week.

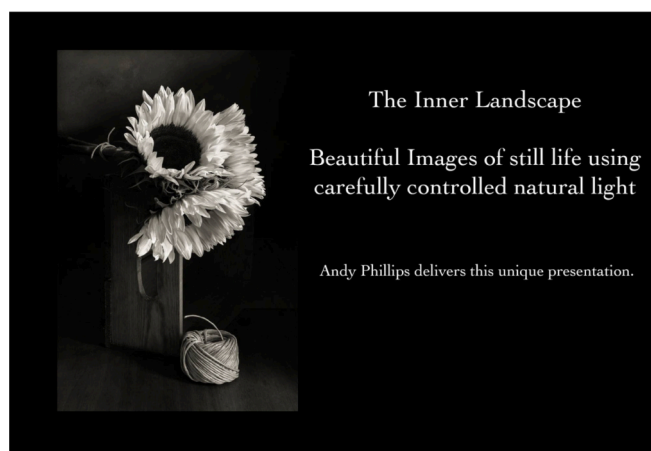

Overall results to be announced in the AGM the following week.

This coming Wednesday we have a talk from Andy Phillips on "The Inner Landscape". It is based around his techniques for still life with natural lighting - but also covers his landscape work and many of his techniques and tips are transferrable to other genres. Our AGM is part of the Zoom meeting on Wed 29 June. Watch out for upcoming emails on important Club business matters we need to address including Committee positions and programme decisions for the coming year.
