

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

You've been voting online for your favourite "E" images - results on Monday evening.

A new season - a new name for the Viewfinder newsletter - in case you've forgotten how to find the Hut, search Bright.Extra.View in what3words (click link). So now you know... download what3words app to your phones.

And more importantly the new programme will soon be available. It is a split between Zoom and Hut sessions. There are still a couple of gaps in Spring/Summer to fill which will be completed later when we have a clearer idea of how the season is progressing. (Don't try to read the teaser - it's blurred !)

- ▷ Zoom sessions include external talks using remote speakers - including our first overseas speaker - and image evenings where we need structured presentation of larger numbers of images such as the PDI Competitions over Autumn/Winter.
- ▷ Hut sessions include evening workshops and a re-badged "picture" evenings - Photo/Sense - see some pictures, hear some discussion/critiques, make sense of the techniques, smell the coffee. Images could be digital (on a usb stick), print, books, or even on your own computer/tablet. Nominally each evening has a compositional theme - but bring any images you want to discuss. Hopefully the Club Print Competition will also be Hut-based starting in the Spring.
- ▷ There are also events with Crawley Arts Society, the annual Mix n Match competition and the 4way (tele)Photo Challenge with Belfast, Cardiff and Edinburgh - and the monthly comp with online polls and (initially) Zoom results.

Whilst the full version is being confirmed (this coming week) - here are some important early dates for you:

The first Hut session is Monday 12th where food will be provided - bring a camera and take some food pics before socialising. Wed 14 Sept is also likely to be in the Hut (theme of the evening for your images is "depth of field"), and Mike is arranging a lighting workshop for Wed 21 Sept.

Images deadline for monthly competition subject "R" is 6pm on Monday 19 Sept.

Images deadline for PDI Round 1 is 6pm Tues 27 Sept - to be judged via Zoom by Steve Lawrenson Wed 5 Oct.

As usual watch out for emails via the "Online" group email for submission details.
