

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

Monday's Mix n Match Competition went down to the wire with the result depending on the very last mark awarded by the judge Zoe Garnham-Archer. East Grinstead took an early lead in the "numbers" but CCC came through in the "letters" section and shared the honours with Mid-Sussex in "special characters". After the 40 rounds CCC had a five point lead, which we held after the special category awards. With overall 3rd/2nd awarded to EG the score was 59v57. But a stunning Kingfisher image took overall 1st place and leapfrogged EG to a 1 point winning margin. Congratulations to East Grinstead CC and to MSCC for their part in an enjoyable evening. The poor weather foiled EG and MS's intentions of having hybrid Zoom/in-person meets and so we were all on Zoom with over 60 participants. The hosts next year are East Grinstead who hope to organise an in-person competition around the same time in December.

Below a selection of round winning images from (clockwise) Phil Marsden, Dave Rowe, Paul Holroyd and Peter Webb.

At the beginning of December the Sussex Photographic Federation (of which CCC was a member club) closed down citing lack of volunteers to manage SxPF and run its various activities such as competitions. Remember that CCC is also affiliated to the Surrey Photographic Association (SPA) which continues as normal.
