

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

On Monday we had a Zoom talk "Looking Local" with Essex landscape photographer Chris Shepherd about "his battle with locational myopia" - making best of what's on your doorstep. You can see some of his images on his website www.shepherdpics.com. He talked about the difficulty of taking meaningful pictures in his local forests which have chaos, contrast and complexity that the camera finds difficult to separate - and the use of HDR to help with contrast. Fyi he referred to a site that checks illegitimate use of your (copyrighted) images - see Pixsy.com

On Wednesday we were back at the Hut discussing the recent Print Competition images and with some useful insights into our different print image "framing" preferences and photographic papers.

Meanwhile Steve Yates has been pulling together our entries for the SPA Inter-Club PDI Competition in May.

In a look back at Edition 1 over a year ago we included the top images from the (tele)Photo challenge with clubs from Belfast, Cardiff, Edinburgh - so here is another chance to see again in big print one of the top memorable images in the challenge - and add a splash of colour to this edition.
