

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

On Wednesday's Zoom James Kerwin presented his "Abandoned Architecture" talk from his home in Istanbul, Turkey. James is a fine art architecture photographer specialising in photographing architecture pre-renovation.

Over the past 10 years ten years he has built up a large portfolio taken in some of the most striking abandoned structures, relics and ruins in Europe and beyond.

He talked about his introduction to the genre and his journey to becoming an award-winning photographer - capturing rich colour palettes and straight lines in the camera, then utilising modern post-processing techniques such as pano stitching to develop the completed images.

You can download some supporting notes from James (with links) at CCCLink (expires in a week). Also see his website jameskerwinphotographic.com for more images and info.
