

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

On Wednesday we had our final Zoom talk of the season "Capturing The Imagination" from Northamptonshire-based photographer Warren Alani. This included many award-winning exhibition pictures across different genres including architecture, street, travel and sport. You can find more images on his website warrenalaniphotography.com

Please submit your monthly competition images "D" as early as possible this month (ideally before the deadline pls).

Print of the Year is judged at the Hut on Wednesday by Eddie Lord. Please bring your prints to the Hut before 7.45pm or arrange to get them to Steve Yates beforehand.

The following Monday is the Summer Photo Rally. You have a few hours to capture images around the park/local neighbourhood/town for 5-6 set subjects. The images are submitted later in the evening straight from camera for members to judge later in the month. Steve Yates will be sending around an email on the format.

You may have already seen the separate email on our Annual Print Exhibition in August/September at Crawley Museum (and online) alongside Crawley Art Society. If you are interested in providing two mounted prints then please reply to that email.

For info the newsletter email also includes the SPA Summer Newsletter as an attachment. It has a few words on the recent PDI Competition - and also some early positioning around AI and competition photography.

Finally PermaJet (a popular photo paper supplier) has published its second (free, downloadable) guide on printing. Download Vol 1: The Art of Paper Selection and Vol 2: The Step by Step Guide to Printing on PermaJet's home page.

Bright.Extra.View will be a little later next weekend.

Mid to Long Range Zoom (a look at what's coming up in the next few weeks)
