

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

On Monday we had a very good turnout for Lanarkshire-based photographer David Gilliver's excellent Zoom talk on land- and waterscape lightpainting - with techniques ranging from torch lighting of objects at night to harmonographs. See davidgilliver.com Discount code CLUB25 gives members a 25% discount on shop items. By general agreement David will be returning for the 2024-25 programme with his macro talk (already booked).

Next Monday (11th) we have the annual Mix n Match Competition with East Grinstead and Mid-Sussex CCs. This year it is back to a live format hosted by EGCC at the Glen Vue Centre (RH19 1BS). The Centre has plenty of free parking behind the building (entrance to the car park is opposite the Open Arms Pub). Enter building via the central automatic glass door open from 7.15pm for prompt 8pm start.

The format involves 60 rounds of trying to match the theme/subject of images projected in turn by the Clubs. Matches gain a point - plus an additional point for best image of each round. The 60 images are prepared in advance - so in the latter stages the relationship to the subjects becomes more and more tenuous and humorous - and much depends on the discretion of the presiding judge - Frazer Visser - the mayor of East Grinstead (and photographer). Come along and make some noise, If you want to organise car-sharing suggest you circulate intentions via allmembers-crawleycamera@gaggle.email email group.
