

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

After a quiet week for news last week there is a lot to catch up on.. On Wednesday's Zoom talk David Keep gave a captivating talk on high impact sports images - which he uses for competitions and exhibitions (and has many awards). You can download the slides for his "Sports Images with Impact (1)" talk on this link. You will need the password Sport101. You can also find many of his other images on his website davidkeepphotography.co.uk and a discount code for PermaJet and Pinnacle papers (foot of home page). Check out his video tutorials on his workflow for handling the 1000's of images he takes at each event (having clocked up nearly 500,000 clicks on his shutter).

A reminder that our next meeting is at the Hut. As we move into Spring then there is space for more in-person meetings and practicals alongside a few Zoom fixtures.

When you visit the Hut check out the set of LFI Journals (Leica Fotografie International) on display on the print rails. These have some stunning images and high quality articles by renowned photographers and are well worth a browse (or borrow and return) - not just for Leica users. This is NOT the start of a photo library - we don't have the space - but the journals are an interesting and decorative photography asset. Thanks to Nick Kemsley who contacted us via the website to donate the journals.

We had to postpone the (tele)Photo Results meeting because of issues with one Club's marks. The revised results are now available and the Results meeting (in the Hut) is re-arranged for Wed 27 March (see below). The Creative Lighting workshop postponed because of snow is re-arranged for Wed 24 Apr. Places are limited because of space and original bookings have first refusal - any spare places will be offered to others - and there will be other workshops to follow. Watch out for details. Programme on website has been updated.

You may recall we had a recent request from the MSK Dept at Crawley Hospital for images to decorate their patient waiting spaces. They have now selected an initial set of six images from nearly 30 submissions. Further news and details when we have more info in coming weeks (our photographers are aware of outcomes).

CCC recently joined the Regnum Crouch Group of (seven) Sussex photography clubs with an annual PDI and Print competition. The PDI comp is on Fri 5 April 7pm at Henfield Village Hall (BN5 9EQ). CCC is represented by eight image from eight photographers from the 2023 PDI of the Year competition (photographers are aware). You are invited to attend on the evening - more details of our images in later newsletters.
