

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

On Friday the Regnum Crouch Group (of which we are a member) held its annual inter-club PDI Competition. This time around (our first time in the group in recent years) CCC was represented by eight image from eight photographers from our 2023 PDI of the Year competition.

It was a creditable set of scores but with this format with a single judge then the final Club rankings came down to fine margins.

The overall results are attached - and an online version with images can be seen at imageprepare.com/Competition/Competition/526

Our top image (with a 19) was Chris Pittock's "Hiding from the Storm".

A reminder that this coming week is the deadline for submitting your images (up to four) for Round 2 of the Club's PDI Competition. This is your last chance to put images into a Competition before the "Images of the Year Competition" (which uses images used in PDI and Print Competitions). The PDI Competition will be judged in the Hut the following week. See separate email for usual guidelines.

This coming week we also have our final Zoom talk of the season when atmospheric landscape photographer Justin Minns presents on "Interesting Stuff". See separate email with Zoom invite. See his website www.justinminns.co.uk

Meanwhile - check out this X/Twitter link for some interesting images with juxtaposed subjects courtesy of James Lucas.

(best experience if signed into X, but can see some images if not)
