

Macro (a closer look at the past week)

This month we started a new set of monthly competition set subjects using the QWERTY keyboard alphabet starting at the letter "F". A new rule this season is that titles can only be ONE WORD. And we successfully used the PhotoEntry website for uploading images. This will be used to collect images for all our events going forward (monthly comps, PDI comps, jpegs of PRINT comp entries, exhibitions etc). If you have not yet signed up to use this facility and you intend participating then please check emails over the past few weeks for instructions.

Last Wednesday we reviewed and discussed the results of the July monthly set subject competition (alphabet subject F) in the Hut. Congratulations to the top 3 images. Results attached to email.

A reminder to sign up to the CCC WhatsApp groups if you want timely reminders for events (and any changes to events) or to join in occasional short discussion topics.

In the coming weeks we have final preparation for those who are submitting images for the Annual Print Exhibition at the Museum, and then the Photo Rally in Shoreham (separate email to follow from SY).

If you are interested in creative-style photography then the RPS Creative Eye Group Digital Exhibition (click link) has just been announced - with maybe a familiar image in the exhibition. You may want to consider joining.
